

JUNE 1954

Kaeza Fearn

poem by Mary-Beth O'Shea-Noonan^o

Appassionato ♩ = 68

Solo

Appassionato

Piano

f molto legato

mf

mf

Sva

5

I was con-ceived in a shack by the 9

sea, its shingles bleached and bea-ten nick-el gray. There were waves that — day wash-ing o-ver the foun-da-tions of the old salt-works. My

13

(Sva)

(Sva)

©2000

"June 1954 from Hungry Grass © 1998 used by permission

16
8

fa-ther told me this, his eyes the blue of a still in-let af - ter rain, And

mp

pp

legato

8va

20
8

I can i - ma-gine such a thing. My ris-ing like a cry from my fa-ther's throat,

mf

mp

f

8va

24
8

Break-ing free_ of his long-ing and swim-ming, all_ head_ and_ ea-ger tail, all

f

(8va) 15^{ma} 8va

rallentando

28
8

sal - ty fi - shy hu - man need~ I swim in - to the dark_ and

ff

sempre legato

32 rallentando

8 hea - vy egg of my mo - ther.

rallentando ff sfz rit. sfz rit.

37 a tempo p

8 This is me.

a tempo fff sp legato mf

42 mp

8 My mo - ther's eyes were green - as o - cean weeds, but

8va p

45

8 I did not, of course, see them o - pen wide, did not - see the pu - pils swell

8va

49 mf
8 deep and black as tid-al pools. A blade of sea-grass swirled o - bli - vious_ to the

Sva
p.i.

53 mp
8 wind hea-vy with the rank sul - fur scent_

legato Red. Red. Red.

57
8 of low_ tide.

Red. Red. Red. Red. Red. p mp

61
8

Red. Red. Red. pp ppp Sva